DOB: June 18,1948

DOD: March 18,2024

Obituary

Back Story: The house used to belong to Priscilla McGlond, born on June 18, 1948, passed away on March 18, 2024. No adverse possession claims or marriage records were found. The 2024 property taxes remain unpaid for $1,808.22, with previous payments having been made by Priscilla McGlond herself. The last recorded payment was for $1,917.72, though records do not indicate when the last reassessment took place.

According to Miami County records, there is an active lis pendens seeking foreclosure. If the amount of $55,931.87 is not paid by April 29, 2025, the house will be sold at auction. Additionally, records indicate an outstanding home equity line of credit short-form mortgage from 2017 for $42,500.00.

Probate records confirm that the property has been administered, and the probate case was closed on December 3, 2024. The heirs to the property are Labron McGlond, residing at 7125 NE Miami Ct, Miami, FL 33138, who holds a 50% share, and Timothy McGlond, currently incarcerated at Dade Correctional Institution (DC#395458) at 19000 SW 377th St, Florida City, FL 33034, who also holds a 50% share.

Family Tree Buildout:

Research your Probate Heirship system per your state, but make note of children, spouses, parents, siblings and any nieces/nephews, aunts/uncles here:

AFTER COLLECTING INFO - DO THIS:

1. Once you have gathered sufficient information, start to reach out to potential heirs. Reach out by way of calls, texts and emails.
2. Call neighbors to the left and to the right to see if they have any information.
3. Look at the docket of the property to find more owner/mortgagee/heir information

Family tree hierarchy:

- If owner of record had a spouse then it goes to them (if no kid from prior relationship), if no spouse, then it goes to the kids, if no kids, then it goes to the parents, if no parents then it goes to the siblings, if no siblings then it goes to the grandparents, if no grandparents then it goes to the aunts and uncles, if no aunts/uncles, then it goes to the cousins, if no cousins then it goes nieces and nephews.

Florida Statute 732.401

Florida Statute 732.401 — “Descent of Homestead” — is a Florida law that governs how a homestead property is inherited when the owner dies without a permitted devise (i.e., leaving a valid will or transfer) and is survived by a spouse and/or descendants.

✓ What the statute says

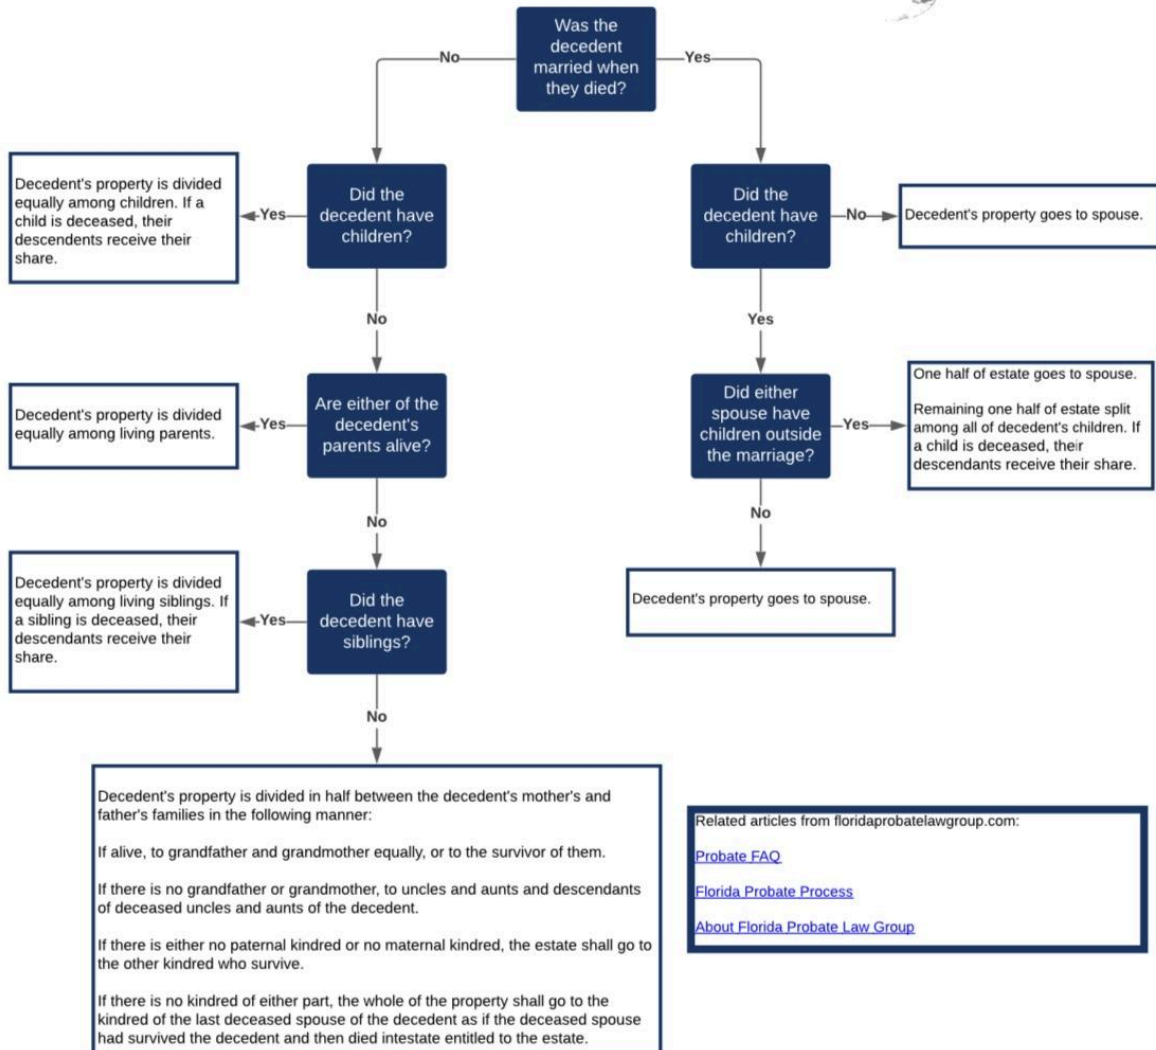

1. If the homestead is not devised (by will or other allowed means):
 - The homestead property descends like other intestate property (property of someone who died without a specific devise).
 - But if the decedent is survived by both a spouse and one or more descendants (children, grandchildren, etc.), then the surviving spouse gets a life estate in the homestead, and the descendants get a vested remainder interest, per stirpes (i.e., by branch of descent).
2. Alternative election by surviving spouse:
 - Instead of taking the life estate, the surviving spouse may elect (choose) to take an undivided one-half interest in the homestead as a tenant in common, with the remaining half vesting in the descendants per stirpes.
 - This election must occur within 6 months after the decedent’s death and during the surviving spouse’s lifetime.
 - The election is irrevocable once made.
 - Notice of the election must be filed (recorded) with a legal description of the property in the county’s official records.
3. Expenses of ownership
 - While the life estate is in effect (if the spouse did not make the election), expenses related to the property (taxes, upkeep, etc.) are allocated between the spouse (life tenant) and the descendants (remaindermen) under the rules of another chapter (chapter 738).
 - If the spouse elects the one-half interest option, expenses are then allocated proportionally between the spouse and descendants as tenants in common.
4. Exceptions & special circumstances
 - This statute does not apply if the property was owned by the decedent as a tenancy by the entireties (married couple) or joint tenancy with right of survivorship.
 - If the surviving spouse disclaims the life estate (under chapter 739), the descendants’ interests may not be divested.

Under Florida Statute 732.401, the surviving spouse’s life estate vests automatically at the moment of death if:

- The property qualifies as protected homestead
- The decedent is survived by a spouse and one or more descendants
- There was no valid devise

Scripts:

Script for unclassified associates:

Hi, good afternoon, is (heir) available to speak?

No?

Do you know when would be a better time for me to reach (heir)?

Who is this?

My name is Joshua, I work with an asset recovery firm here in Miami that helps families get their estates settled. I was trying to get a hold of (heir) because he inherited a portion of a property from his family and we are in the process of helping them with the estate. Is there a good number I could reach (heir) at?

Script for neighbors:

Hi, (neighbor), good afternoon. I'm sorry this is a little random but I have been trying to get in contact with the relatives of your neighbor (deceased person). So, I know he passed away some time ago. We are currently in the process of doing the probate for their estate and since you are their neighbor, I just wanted to reach out and see if you knew of anyone living at the house or continually going in and out?

(then go into family questions: What are their names, do you know of any family members I could reach out to?)

Script for relatives:

Hi, (seller name) ??

Good afternoon. This is (your name), sorry this is a little random but I've been trying to get in contact with you and some of the other family members of (deceased person).

So, I know they passed away some time ago.

They left behind a property that would be an inheritance to some of the family members, so I was trying to get in contact with the closest relatives to see if we can help them with the estate. Do you know if (deceased person) had kids?

[Hola, (nombre del vendedor):

Buenas tardes. Soy (tu nombre), disculpa que esto sea un poco inesperado, pero he estado tratando de ponerme en contacto contigo y con algunos otros miembros de la familia de (nombre del fallecido). ¿Te suena ese nombre?

Sé que falleció hace tiempo. Dejó una propiedad que sería una herencia para algunos de sus familiares, así que estaba tratando de comunicarme con ellos para informarles al respecto y ver si podemos ayudarles en el proceso de tomar legalmente posesión (sucesión) o venderla.

LAY UP PITCH FOR CALL 2

Well hey im going to pass this to my underwriters so they can get working on it. On this next call I'll let you know how the process would work, the timeline and how much you would walk away with after it's all said and done. Is that fair?

OBJECTIONS

- Family living there - They have options
 - Most people don't want to put a sibling in a tough spot. The thing is, living there doesn't change ownership, it just delays decisions. Usually people end up paying taxes and repairs while nothing gets resolved.
- Have lawyer - paid/talked to them yet? ; haven't started the process ; kicking can down the road.

- Percentage/Retainer/Our fee - “Since we buy out the heirs portion, we don’t charge any legal or administrative costs. We have attorneys that handle the process so you don’t have to.”

If they are NOT aware.

“Ok well write this down, (address). We specialize in inheritance recovery, so we help heirs, family members, just like yourself, get paid for their portions of the house. We go through the whole judicial process and take care of the legal & financial headaches that come with settling the estate. I’m going to send you a txt with our info and the property I mentioned. Take a look at it and we can circle back in a day or 2 to reconvene. Is that fair?

& just to confirm the (decedant name) had (so & so children / siblings / confirm family tree a bit).

Ok great we look forward to speaking (day) at (time). Thank you.

Response:

We have an inheritance recovery business that helps heirs claim and liquidate their portions of inherited property. We take care of the heavy lifting so you don’t have to. Take a look at the information I’ll send you and we can circle back say tomorrow at (time). My manager Joshua, will call you back at that time and let you know how the process would work, the timeline and you how much you would walk away with after it’s all said and done.

The good news is we have already approved the house.

Before I schedule a call with my manager, can you break down the family tree a little?

Go into confirming/building a family tree - child/sibling/aunt/uncle/cousin/grandparent etc?...

Closing Call

Hi (heir),

This is (your name), is now still a good time?

Great. So on this call I'm going to explain the process, timeline and how much you would walk away with after it's all said and done. Fair enough?

Before I get into the process, I need to confirm 3 things.

1. Are you aware of any will that was left behind by the decedant?
2. Ok so ... (confirm family tree)?
3. Do you know if this was the homestead (primary residence) of the descendants?
4. Do you know if the decedent left any bank accounts?

Perfect. So I'm going to give you a quick run down of the process and after I will also send you an email so you can have everything in writing. Is (heir's email) the best email for you?

Thank you. ➡ (go into detailed case summary)

(Email)

Good afternoon,

Below are the details for this estate referencing 1785 NW 52 ST MIAMI, FL 33142

Additionally you will also find the attached pdf that will need to be executed tomorrow.

Property owner:

Rufus L Hutton

DOB: Sep 1913

DOD: Feb 1992

Detailed Case Summary

1. Ok great, so to move forward, we will need to initiate probate proceedings for the following individuals:

Thelma Johnson, Howard Johnson, Dorothy Royal & Paul Royal.

2. Now there is a potential risk that heirs may present a will asserting full ownership of the property or may seek to contest the estate. This could impact the distribution process.

3. Once the estates are properly administered, we will be in a position to liquidate the property—provided all heirs agree to sell.

If consensus cannot be reached, we would need to file a partition action to compel the sale of the property so that all heirs receive their fair share. Alternatively, the heirs who wish to retain ownership may have the option to buy out the shares of those who wish to sell.

4. The probate process is expected to take approximately 45 days, followed by an additional 45 days to complete liquidation (on average our cases take 74 days). If partition litigation is required, that process typically takes about 6 months, depending on court scheduling and cooperation among parties.

5. We will cover all legal fees, probate administration costs, and closing expenses. Upon completion, you would receive $64,357.20 (stay quiet until they answer)

Tailor according to situation:

“With everything covered, the next step to get the ball rolling would be for you to review and execute the necessary documents so we can start the probate. So looks like everyone resides in miami besides _____ ? Would you and the others that reside in miami be able to meet tomorrow or _____ evening to get things rolling?”

(Manager)

Mind if I ask you a couple questions?

In this house there are _____ heirs, is that correct ?

Is the house currently vacant?

Regular mortgage or reverse mortgage?

Let's do this, I would like to buy you and your family members portion of the house. And maybe see if I can do something with that, I would like to get you guys paid out because the house has just been sitting there. Would you guys want to do that?

I already checked out the house, that's why I am reaching out to you.

How much are you offering?

We need to confirm a couple more things before giving you an offer. (confirm family tree). Then say my manager will call you back letting you know how much we can pay for your share of the inheritance.

Just to confirm ...

Confirm heirs again

Can you break down the family tree a little?

Reconfirm. We are writing this down to make sure we do things the right way. Sometimes the probates can get a little hectic.

Ok great, I'll work up the documents. What time works best for you today at 7pm or tomorrow at 10am to sign the documents?

Family tree hierarchy:
